Re: Green v. The State of New York, 14-CV-2073-RJS-FM

Hon. Sullivan:

I am writing at this time in request that the courts go by the records because the courts will not allow me to expand the record to respond to the Respondent's Answer. In addition, I am requesting the courts allow me this request that the records are the only proof of my showing that does have a claim and my petition should be granted. The Rules Governing Section 2254 Cases to include and can rely on the record in itself that the Petitioner has furnished from the state Court with.

Assuming arguendo, the respondents claim, the petitioner's request should be denied because his are meritless, however, to assist the Court in the resolution of the claims presented, the proposed exhibits and attached records will substantiate the petitioner's claim of the issue being fairly presented to the state courts, and exhausted for review. O'Sullivan v. Boerckel, 526 U.S. 838, 848 (1999).

In addition, the record will assist the Court in resolution of the petitioner's claim to rebut the respondents contentions and he did inform them of the constitutional nature of his claims when he relied on specific provisions of the Constitution, cited clearly established Supreme Court precedent, and relied upon state and federal cases employing the federal constitution of his claims (Baldwin v. Reese, 541 U.S. 27, 29-31 [2004]).

In sum, the petitioner hopes the requested relief will be granted because it is germane to the issue presented (Williams v. Schiriro, 423 F.Supp.2d 994, 1002-1003 [D. Ariz. 2006]).

Thank you.

Respectfully Submitted,

Edward Green
